

Gwinnett County Public Schools (GCPS) is the largest and most diverse school system in the state. More than 13,000 students graduate from Gwinnett schools each spring, with the majority advancing to post-secondary study.

Establishing a (regular or memorial) scholarship to be in our GCPS Foundation Scholarship Catalog is easy. The (name of scholarship) can be made available and ready to post in our October release for students and teachers seeking scholarships for 2021-2022. You can set your own deadline date for an educator scholarship. Student deadlines are set for December 6, 2021, that utilize our scholarship form. A fund must be established with the GCPS Foundation specifically for this purpose. A minimum of half per scholarship fund must be maintained each year with the GCPS Foundation to ensure that funds are available to sustain the scholarship. Donors will receive a thank you acknowledgement at the time of donation, as well as a tax letter in January. Scholarship funds with the GCPS Foundation are not interest bearing, but our senior executive director has a strong financial background and will be glad to discuss options, if desired. There is no fee at this time to establish or maintain a scholarship with the GCPS Foundation, a 501C3 nonprofit charitable entity benefitting Gwinnett County Public Schools.
