All scholarship checks will be made payable directly to the postsecondary institution the GCPS graduate will attend. ***

AwardSpring:

Some of our scholarships use AwardSpring, an online scholarship application platform. Students create one account, complete their profile, and can apply for multiple scholarships in one place. To ensure access after graduation, students should use a personal (non-GCPS) email address when creating their account.

Scholarships that require an AwardSpring application will be identified in this catalog with "AwardSpring Application."

Note to Students:

While each scholarship may have unique requirements, such as specific essay topics or eligibility criteria, many ask similar questions. To save time and be well prepared, we strongly suggest having the following information ready before you begin applying:

- Letter of recommendation
- Your cumulative GPA
- Your SAT or ACT score
- List of your honors and awards
- List of your extracurricular and volunteer activities

AwardSpring Application

Beauty P. Baldwin Scholarship (open to applicants districtwide)

Upsilon Alpha Omega, the Gwinnett Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., was chartered in Gwinnett County on January 29, 1994. One of the first challenges taken on by the chapter was to establish a scholarship for young women in Gwinnett County. The scholarship was named in honor of one of our chartering members, Mrs. Beauty P. Baldwin. Thus far, we have awarded numerous scholarships totaling thousands of dollars to college-bound high school seniors.

Upsilon Alpha Omega is offering a scholarship to high school seniors to further their educational opportunities. The scholarship focuses on marginalized or disadvantaged communities (male or female). It is the chapter's goal to promote post-secondary education endeavors. The scholarship will be awarded to students who meet the following scholarship qualifications:

Requirements:

- Must be a Gwinnett County Public School senior
- Of African American descent (male or female)
- Must already be accepted to an accredited four-year college or university
- Must possess leadership potential and discernible good character
- Must demonstrate superior scholastic achievement (minimum 3.0 GPA)

*The Scholarship process will open in January 2027 with additional directions provided at that time.

Deadline: February 1

Application

Beyond the Spectrum Scholarship (open to applicants districtwide)

The women of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated, Sigma Omicron Zeta Chapter of Gwinnett County invite eligible seniors to apply for our Beyond the Spectrum Scholarship.

The Beyond the Spectrum Scholarship supports graduating high school seniors diagnosed with an autism spectrum disorder who plan to pursue postsecondary education. Two $500 scholarships will be awarded.

Interested applicants must submit a completed scholarship application, as well as any required documents, by January 16, 2026. If any student needs assistance in applying, we are more than happy to help!

Please visit our website at www.sigmaomicronzeta.org/scholarship to view the information and download the scholarship application. Application materials should be emailed to sozscholarship@gmail.com. Official transcripts should be mailed to Sigma Omicron Zeta, PO Box 1114, Snellville, GA 30078.

Please feel free to reach out with any questions you may have by emailing sozscholarship@gmail.com.

Application

Brenden and Alex Elbaz Scholarship (open to applicants districtwide)

The Brenden and Alex Elbaz Memorial Scholarship was initially established through the Gwinnett County Public Schools Foundation and was exclusive to a Lanier High School Student where his mother Joy Crowe was a teacher.

In 2011 Brenden Elbaz, at the age of 23, tragically died of a drug overdose. Nine years later, in 2020, Alex Elbaz at the age of 27, lost his life to Fentanyl Poisoning. Brothers Brenden and Alex were 5 years apart and very close. Both college students at the time. Brenden was a political science major at University of North Ga., formerly known as Gainesville State University, and Alex was a month from graduating Georgia Gwinnett College with a degree in accounting, which was received posthumously.

Brenden and Alex were loved immensely by their family, friends and all those that knew them. They both encountered personal challenges which they battled to overcome, and each will be remembered in that spirit.

Requirements:

- Education: Open to students accepted into an accredited postsecondary institution (college, university, or trade/vocational school).
- Essay Submission: Submit a one-page essay detailing:
  - A personal hardship or challenge you faced and how you overcame it.
  - The lessons learned and how the experience changed you.

- Your current dreams, career goals, and aspirations.

Deadline: February 7, 2027

AwardSpring Application

Clara Barton Aspiring Nurse Scholarship (open to applicants districtwide)

The Clara Barton Aspiring Nurse Scholarship Award was established by Shelli-Ann McKenzie, a dedicated Registered Nurse, Gwinnett County resident, and the Founder of Help for Healthcare Professionals (HHCP). This scholarship supports local youth pursuing nursing careers, recognizing outstanding Gwinnett County Public School (GCPS) high school seniors, annually.

Requirements:

- Proof of Nursing School Acceptance: Upload the official letter of acceptance on university or college letterhead.
- Academic Performance: Maintain a minimum GPA of 2.8, with passing grades of C or higher in all courses. Please upload your transcript as proof.
- Professional Recommendations: Provide two professional recommendation letters from a mentor, teacher, community leader, or other relevant individuals. Please upload proof below.
- Essay Submission
  - 500-word essay that answers three questions:
    - Your journey. What experiences led you to nursing?
    - Your impact. What kind of nurse do you intend to be?
    - Your need. How will this scholarship support your path forward?
  - Essays will be evaluated on clarity, authenticity, and alignment with the values of the Clara Barton Aspiring Nurse Scholarship: service, resilience, and commitment to care.

- Anti-AI Clause: We want to hear your authentic voice, your struggles, and your vision—not an algorithm's. Applications suspected of being generated by artificial intelligence tools will be disqualified. Write like yourself.

Deadline: February 7, 2027
AwardSpring Application

Dr. Robert C. & Susan C. Mosteller Skilled Trades & Vocational Scholarship (open to Lanier Cluster applicants only)

Established in honor of Dr. Robert C. and Susan C. Mosteller, this scholarship reflects their shared dedication to practical excellence and workforce preparation. As a high school counselor, Mrs. Mosteller strongly advocated for career exploration paths like the ASVAB to help students discover their technical aptitudes. Mirroring that belief, Dr. Mosteller actively acquired hands-on expertise in HVAC, plumbing, and electrical trades to drive his success as a rental property entrepreneur. This $2,500 award provides annual financial assistance to a graduating Gwinnett County Public Schools senior who shares this practical drive, passionately pursuing a career technical education, trade certification, or vocational program to skillfully enter the workforce.

Scholarship Criteria:
• Applicant Eligibility: Must be a graduating senior currently enrolled in Gwinnett County Public Schools.
• Academic Standing: Must maintain a minimum cumulative, unweighted GPA of 2.5.
• Community Involvement: Must demonstrate active involvement in extracurricular activities, community service, part-time employment, hands-on projects, or significant family caregiving responsibilities.

Submission Requirements:
• A current high school transcript.
• One letter of recommendation from a Career and Technical Education (CTE) instructor, an employer, or a community mentor who can vouch for the applicant's work ethic and hands-on capability.
• Essay Prompt: A 300–500 word essay responding to the following prompt: "The skilled trades are the backbone of our community. Describe a time you built, fixed, or designed something that made you realize you wanted to pursue this field. How will this specific certification or program help you turn your hands-on passion into a successful career?"
• Important Application Instruction (Anti-AI Clause): We want to hear your authentic voice, your real struggles, and your personal vision—not an algorithm's. Applications suspected of being generated by artificial intelligence tools (such as ChatGPT) will be disqualified. Write like yourself. Your unique story is what matters most to the selection committee.

Deadline: February 7, 2027
AwardSpring Application

Dr. Tarece Johnson-Morgan Scholarship for the Arts (open to applicants districtwide)

A one-time award of $1000 presented to a college bound GCPS senior. One or more recipients may be named. Emphasis will be placed on participation in the arts (painting, graphic design, illustration, sculpture, literature, film, music, dance, theater, poetry, photography and/or fashion) and volunteer work demonstrating a commitment to making a difference in the community.

If preferred, instead of writing an essay, applicants have the option to submit a 3-minute video describing how art has improved your life and what you want to do with your art in the future.

Requirements:

- Applicant must be on track to graduate (no GPA/SAT/ACT requirement) include a copy of 1st-semester transcript
- Financial need
- Must major in the arts: painting, graphic design, illustration, sculpture, literature, film, music, dance, theater, and/or fashion
- Submit a one-page typed essay describing how art has improved your life and what you want to do with your art in the future or submit a 3-minute video describing how art has improved your life and what you want to do with your art in the future
- Have plans to enroll in an accredited college or university for the fall or spring.
